

Autumn Fire Stonecrop Sedum x 'Autumn Fire'

Plant Information

Size: 18-24"

Flower Color: Rose/Mauve

Bloom Time: Late
Summer/Early
Fall
Mid Fall

Light Exposure: Full Sun

Soil Requirements: Average to poor soil that is well-
drained

Zones: 3-9

Notes: This plant is attractive to bees, butterflies and/or birds

Drought-tolerant; suitable for xeriscaping

Average Water Needs; Water regularly; do not overwater

Provides winter interest

Sedum is one of the most popular perennials grown in American gardens because it is very easy to grow and hardy in most areas of the country. Because of its thick, succulent leaves which can store water, sedum is drought tolerant

Foliage:

Herbaceous

Blue-Green

Succulent